NEW THIS YEAR... Nationally-recognized celebrity plane builder and pilot, Mac Hodges, and crew will be here with a crowd-pleasing reenactment of the first plane to break the sound barrier! After the Bell X-1 rocket plane blasts into the wild blue, Mac will do things with the 20 ft B-29 that will leave spectators in awe. You don't want to miss this exciting show!

Sponsored by the Fond du Lac Aeromodelers

Located on Hickory Road, 2-1/2 Miles South of 41.
Public Admission just $5 per vehicle.
